Employment Experience

Resident Assistant, Covenant College

Fall 2003-Present

Responsibilities & Accomplishments Successfully interfaced between the Student Development Office and the student residents of 2nd South, Carter Hall by communicating the big picture of living in an designed, contracted community and enforcing practical concerns regarding and living conditions. Unified thirty-seven diverse residents into an intentional group of men that respected differences while uniting in celebration and support of each other.

Editor in Chief, The Bagpipe

Fall 2002-Spring 2003

Responsibilities & Accomplishments As Editor in Chief of the Covenant College student newspaper, I was responsible for creating and sustaining a worthy, accurate, engaging, and intelligent bi-weekly newspaper, targeted to and funded by the student body. In charge of a news staff consisting of sixteen-odd people from diverse backgrounds and differing views, I both managed the staff and harmonized the many opinions into a coherent news product. I was also the art director for the newspaper, responsible for the look of every issue as well as the actual graphic production, with assistance.

Pine Cove Camps
